

0 Strength Consultancy Who we are Strengths Consultancy is founded by Eline Meijer & Eva de Meijier We believe investing in what makes you uniquely powerful, is the true key to happiness & success in life. Being your best self, means playing to your strengths at work and everywhere else. The CliftonStrengths positive approach truly breaks with traditional management that focuses on improvement by investing in weaknesses. We believe that investing in what's strong, what you naturally do best, empowers you to be the best version of you. As a result, you'll perform better, feel more engaged and generally happier. Makes sense right? We are on a mission to help as many people and organizations as possible to focus on what's strong with them instead of only focusing on what's wrong. We absolutely love using CliftonStrengths? Strengthsfinder to help people unleash their true potential. Because not only does it lead to greater performance, it makes people feel happy and engaged. We feel everyone deserves to gain greater self-awareness about their strengths, to better understand who you are and how you can be your best. We love helping people understand their strengths to help them aim their purpose at greater performance. With founding Strengths Consultancy we've paired up our unique strengths. Continue reading if you want to learn more about our unique strengths & to get to know more about us. Want to get in touch? Contact Let's meet and have coffee.

© Disclaiming it

